

TELEVISION STUDIES – OCW UC3MTopic VII. Television Audiences: Consumption and Fandom*Key to Exercises of Topic 7*Exercise of the week:

Check your essay to be sure that you included the following aspects:

- Ratings (i.e. tvbythenumber.com).
- Awards and recognitions.
- General critical assessments (i.e. Metacritic).
- Reviews from specific established publications (i.e. The New York Times).
- Scholarly production.
- Fandom.

Think about how much time you devoted to each element and how that is explained in the conclusions. The basic question is: Was this program successful?

You can check one example of this sort of reception analysis here, in this case about the American TV drama The Sopranos:
